

Important UGAMUNC Policies for Delegates

POSITION PAPERS:

Submitting a position paper is required in order to be eligible for an award. Position papers not only create a more competitive and rewarding environment within the committee but also help individual delegates come into the committee thoroughly prepared and familiar with his or her assignment. These position papers can be sent to their respective committees' email, which can be found on individual committee background guides. A physical copy can also be accepted at the beginning of Session I on Friday evening. At the end of the weekend, each committee will also grant one delegate or delegation with the Outstanding Position Paper Award at closing ceremonies. Position papers should be typed; one page single-spaced per topic, 12 point Times New Roman font, and one inch margins. Delegates should use a standard, consistent citation format of their choosing. If you have any questions regarding this policy, please speak to a member of the secretariat.

PAGE POLICY:

The UGAMUNC page policy is that committee chairs will assign pages on a rotating schedule within committees from double delegations in the GA's on a volunteer and/or need basis. Usually only the General Assemblies need pages and have a large number of double delegations available. Due to staffing restrictions, we are unable to provide collegiate staffers to act as pages except under special circumstances.

DRESS CODE:

All UGAMUNC delegates are expected to wear western business attire at for all committee sessions. For men, this means suits and ties or nice khakis, ties and sports coats. For women, this means dress pants or skirts or business dresses (please check for appropriate lengths and fit, etc.). Please note that western business attire does not include fashion denim, Ugg boots, etc. If you have a question about this policy, we will be happy to clarify. Remember that dressing unprofessionally reflects negatively on you and your fellow delegates, so please observe the dress code policy during all committee sessions.
